

Pour Out the Oil

FULLNESS

Rev. Fred A. Hartley, III

"Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to Your Name give glory, for the sake of Your steadfast love and Your faithfulness!" Psalm 115:1

"Bless the Lord, oh my soul, and all that's within me bless His holy Name! Bless the Lord, oh my soul, and forget not all his benefits." Psalm 103:1-2

"The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, and a man is tested by his praise." Proverbs 27:21

There is no limit to what God can do through us as long as we give Him all the glory!
~ Kingdom Principle

The College of Prayer is resolved to diligently give praise, honor, and credit to the Lord Jesus Christ for every victory. We have learned to do the prophetic act of actually pouring a few drops of oil as a way of expressing the profound distinction between God and His role in our ministry and our role.

Pouring Out Oil Says Many Things:

1. What has taken place here in these days is far more God's work than mine.
2. What has taken place here is far more about Him than me.
3. This victory belongs to the Lord. We join together in declaring "Holy to the Lord" over this victory. "The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the Lord." Proverbs 21:31
4. This victory does not add one ounce to my self-worth; my value has already been determined by who I am in Christ.
5. The reason that I have been invited by God to participate in this great work, is something I may never figure out.
6. This victory was not intended to elevate me; it is intended to elevate Christ.
7. Christ is bigger than this victory; for this reason, Christ sits above this victory, even enthroned over this victory.
8. I will never take for granted the fact that God invites us into holy moments like this.

9. God is a self revealing God and the fact that He sovereignly chose to manifest Himself to us, and even through us, is in itself a miracle.

10. This victory is an indication that God will yet give us many more victories.

"We all ... are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another." 2 Cor. 3:18

"They go from strength to strength..." Psalm 84:7

"But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us into triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of Him everywhere." 2 Cor. 2:14
